A glance at our advertising columns will show that the merchants of Winnsboro are ready to meet all your Christmas wants in every line. On account of having bought very largely and the shortness of the cotton crop and the low price of the same they are offering everything at very much reduced prices. In fact this is a time when money is going a long ways in the purchasing of all goods. The Winnsboro merchants are sure to please you in the lowness of the price as well as in the fine variety of their stock. You will do no better in your Christmas trading than to come to Winnsboro.

Davis—Thorne.

At a beautiful wedding in St.
John's Episcopal church, yesterday afternoon, Miss Annie Fays-son Davis became the bride of Mr. John Calain Thorne.

The church and home were tastefully decorated in white and southern smilax and potted plants.

At exactly 5:30 o'clock the party entered the church in the following order: The ushers, Harry and Palmer Davis, C. F.
Davis and J. J. Obeir, Bratton Davis and J. Q. Davis, Jr. The bridesmaids daintily gowned in white French lawn and carrying white carnations, came next.
They were: Misses Bessie Mc-Master, Mamie Ellison, Isabelle Ruff, Bessie Davis, Mary Hayward and Annie Davidson. Then the maid of honor, Miss Mary Pagan, came in alone followed by Mr. J. Q. Davis and his daughter, the bride, who were met at the altar by Mr. Thorne, the groom, and his best man, Mr. B. H. Heyward.

The bride's dress was exquisitely made of white point d'esprit entaine, empire effect with a Bertha of hand-made lace. She wore a veil caught with a diamond brooch. Her traveling dress was of blue chiffon cloth with hat to match.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Q. Davis, and is a favorite among her many friends here and elsewhere. For two years she was a most efficient and popular teacher in Mt. Zion Institute.

The groom, though not a native of Winnsboro, has been employed for several years as assistant manager of the Winnsboro Granite Company at Rion, in which capacity he has fully established himself as a progressive and up-to-date business man. He is well known here in Winnsboro and has a host of friends who rejoice in his good fortune.

The beautiful china, cut glass, and silver, together with many other beautiful presents attest the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Thorne are held.

The happy couple left on the 8:11 Southern for Niagara and other northern points, carrying with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

Cunningham-Raines.

Mr. William C. Cunningham and Miss Lizzie C. Raines, both of Mitford, were happily married by Rev. J. Carter at the Methodist parsonage Thursday evening December 6th. The bride was beautifully dressed in a gray silk with hat to match.

Miss Lizzie was one of Mitford's finest daughters and Mr. Cunningham is a young man of fine character.

Many good wishes for the happy couple. X. Y. Z.

When out doing your Christmas shopping, remember there is one place where you will be sure to get just what you want for the little folks, and that is at G. A. White's, where Santa Claus established his headquarters years ago and where he still has them.

Deaths.

Mr. R. L. Wilks died at his home near Strother Saturday afternoon. For the past two years he had been in declining health. His remains were interred at Salem Sunday afternoon.
He is survived by his wife and four children.

Mrs. Susanna Perry died at the home of Mr. Geo. Perry in the Horeb section Sunday afternoon.
She was buried at Greenbrier Monday afternoon, the funeral service being conducted by Rev.
Henry Stokes. She was the mother of Mrs. J. B. Burley of Winnsboro and a most estimable woman. Several other children survive.

A Crystal Wedding.

Editor News and Herald.
Several days prior to Dec. 8th, invitations were sent around to the friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. G.
H. Steadman, requesting their presence at the celebration of their crystal wedding. The Fates, or old Father Time, or whoever was in charge of the calendar making, sent the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding around on Saturday, but the celebration proceeded as if it had not been on Saturday night; the only inconvenience being the time, limit of eleven o'clock. Promptly at seven o'clock the parlor began filling with Greenbrier's sons and daughters mingled with a considerable sprinkling from other communities. An immense crowd was on hand and the presents poured in until two large tables were filled.

Refreshments were served about nine o'clock and everybod-did ample justice to the magnificent spread, and as joke and pleasantry succeeded each other, many hearty wishes were expressed for the future prosperity and happiness of the host and hostess who had given their friends such a pleasant evening.

VISITOR.

Manzan Pile Remedy put up in convenient, collapsible tubes with no-zzle attachment so that the remedy may be at once applied at the very seat of the trouble, thus relieving almost instantly bleeding, itching or protruding piles. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Mc-

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A.
Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Obeir Drug Co. and all medicine dealers.
